In conclusion, let me be permitted to express the hope, that, whatever may be the action of your delegation upon the nomination to be made, it may be unanimous; and that all personal preferences may be sacrificed in its support.

My heart is with you—my soul is with you. Name whom you please for your candidate, and he shall have my heartiest support. So far as I have the ability, every honorable exertion shall be made to promote his success—a result, of which I cannot entertain a doubt.

With great respect, I am
Very truly,
Your friend and fellow citizen.

Sam Jonsing on Banking.—The two old friends, Sam Jonsing and Pete Gumbo, met last night upon the steps of the Commercial Bank. The burthen of their discourse appeared to be upon banking, and a part of it we publish as throwing a new light upon the subject which has never been touched by Gouge.

"Say, Sam Jonsing, wat you tink of de bank in swisten in general—don't you tink he is subject to many 'buses and oder fringements upon the constitutum generally?"

"Well he is, Pete, dat's a fac. Among oder tings dat is democratically wrong, dars' one ting dat appears to hab been oberlooked from de fuss—an ebil of de greatest magnificence."

"Wat's dat Sam?" said Pete, looking as wise as an owl.

"Why, youb often notice, in course, dat in all the bankin stutions in dis place dat one gemman takes in all de money and neber pays out de fuss red cent—dat's wat I look at. Den, agin, dar's anoder gemman wat's ollers a paying de money out and neber receives noffin, not neber. Now to pertend dat dat's de fair and 'gitimate way to carry on de biz'ness ob banking, to say dat dat's de way to regulate de exchanges, is wat any one-eyed man, without 'stinction of party will neber disagree to. Don't you tink so yourself?"

"Well, I does. I don't see, myself, how dey can eber balance dere accounts, Sam."

"Dey neber can—de ting is impossible. I does'nt pity de man wat takes in de money but when I sees de man dat's ollers a paying out, de sympaties of my breast fairly boils ober, and I sumtimes feels dat you and I, Pete, cannot be too thankful dat we is not in his place. Isn't it melancholy to tink ob?"

"Orful!" said Pete, and we came off.—New Orleans Picayune.

said inspectors or judge, or either of them shall from time to time require.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, other than a white freeman of the age of twenty one years or more, who shall have resided in this state at least one year and in the election district where he offers to vote, at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a state or county tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election in this commonwealth, or shall offer to make any bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, challenge or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof, he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day; or shall fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspector two tickets together with the intent to illegally vote; or shall vote the same; or if any person shall advise or procure another so to do he or they so offending shall on conviction be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars; and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

But a citizen of the United States who had previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the district and paid taxes as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote after residing in the state six months. Provided that white freemen, citizens of the United States between the ages of 21 and 22 years, and having resided in the state one year and in the election district ten days as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote although they shall not have paid taxes."

BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS.

Cleanse and Purify the Body.

AN AMERICAN SUMMER.

The Weather and its effects.—One day we have 90 degrees of heat in the shade; the next 50. Thus, one day the perspiration is streaming from every pore; the next day all are nearly closed. Even those who have a healthy disposition of body, are subject to sickness under these circumstances.—Therefore to prevent any danger, we ought carefully to guard against a COSTIVE STATE OF OUR BOWELS. Once or twice they must be evacuated in 24 hours. If this is not effected naturally, medicine must be resorted to—BRANDRETH'S PILLS must be taken: then there will be no danger. Do not think that EVEN A DAILY USE of these Pills will weaken or debilitate! They do not. On the contrary, the functions of the stomach are restored, the bowels cleansed and strengthened; the appetite and digestion improved. And common sense tells us we are better able to withstand continued heat, or sudden changes than we should be, were we oppressed by a load of impure humors in the blood, always the occasion of every variety of disorder. Often a sudden dysentery occurs. Should there be a cause for this, and it does not take place, then the blood is made the receiver of those humors, which should have been discharged by the bowels. Under these circumstances, which may be known by EXCEEDING DROWSINESS, and great fatigue on the least exertion, vegetable purging must be immediately and energetically practised, or these humors form a lining or deposit in the blood vessels which may produce epilepsy, apoplexy, consumption, &c. &c. It must be, however, borne in mind that even in dysentery and disorders of the bowels, that BRANDRETH'S PILLS are indispensable. They remove those peccant humors which produce these affections, before they have time to produce gangrene or any other fatal effect.

Sometimes the blood is so loaded with humors that it becomes in a fermentation, being that state of the body called fever, which is nothing more than an effort of nature to throw off all offending matters. This is, in fact, a call upon Reason, to assist the natural functions with purging medicine, which, if properly answered, will soon evacuate these foul humors, and restore the body to a state of perfect health.

It is at all times easier to prevent than to cure disease, because by taking a preventive course we do not debilitate the natural functions of the body, but rather strengthen and assist them. The peculiar action of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, is to cleanse the blood from all impurities, remove every cause of pain or weakness, and in such a state of health and vigor so that casual changes cannot effect it.
